BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhileration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Kinny, of 605 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 31 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure foul, torpid and deranged Stomachs, Livers and Bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

The Shackling of Mr. Davis.

Phillip A. Fuller, a prominent contractor, of Phoebus, Va., yesterday gave out an interview in which he said that it was his father, the late Phillip A Fuller, who made the shackles and placed them on the ankles of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, while the latter was a prisoner at Fort Monroe.

Mr. Fuller said his father came to Fort Monroe in 1861, and, he being a blacksmith, was assigned to the work of repairing gun carriages. When at the fortress sometime he was promoted to a position in the quartermaster's office, where he was working when Jefferson Davis was brought to the fortress.

"One day General Miles sent for my father," continued Mr. Fuller, "and told him that he wanted shackles made and placed upon the wrists of Jefferson Davis. My father went to Mr. Davis and told him of the unpleasant duty to which he had been assigned. Father was so pleasantly struck with Mr. Davis's manners that he thought of refusing to obey the orders, and informed Mr. Davis of his intention.

"Mr. Davis, in reply, said. 'Fuller, you must do your duty. If you don't place the irons on me someone else will.' When the irons were completed father went to Mr. Davis's quarters and told him of his errand. The prisoner offered no objection whatever, but simply stretched out his legs and calmly submitted to the ordeal.

"The statements recently published to the effect that Jefferson Davis put up a fight and knocked down the big, brawny blacksmith who shackled him is without foundation. My father was a small man, and that discredits the big blacksmith detail. In the many times he has related the story to me father has never spoken of Mr. Davis attempting to strike him when he went to shackle him, and he has always spoken in the highest terms of the gentlemanly manners displayed on that occasion by the late President of the Confederacy."

Imprisoned in Locomotive Tank.

Joseph Ollier, a Northwestern Railway fitter, now lies in a Crewe, England, hospital after undergoing a remarkable experience. He was imprisoned in the water-tank of a locomotive and only released when the engine was pulled to pieces and the tank broken. Ollier was repairing the engine, when he discovered something wrong with the water-tank. To get at the weak spot it was necessary for him to work from the inside. With little difficulty he managed to squeeze in through the small aperture of the tank. He worked for a few minutes, and then, to his horror, found that he could not get out. He shouted for help and hammered on the sides of the tank. After a time other workmen came, but all their efforts to drag him out were unavailing. In a little time his efforts at release had exhausted his energies, and he lay in the tank unconscious. An army of mechanics soon pulled the engine apart. The rivets in the tank were loosened very carefully and the parts separated. Ollier was at first thought to be dead, but with the aid of restoratives he came round. He is now in the Railway Hospital.

Crush to See Bull Fight.

The council of State having authorized the resumption of Sunday bull fighting on the ground that it is an art, and that the matadors, toreadors, &c., are artists, the national sport was everywhere resumed in Spain yesterday with extraordinary enthusiasm. The occasion was celebrated in Madrid with a corrida, in which six bulls were announced to be killed by Lojarita and Mazzantinito. There was an enormous demand for tickets which finally reached incredible prices. Many poor persons sold their clothes and furniture to obtain the price of admission. Twenty thousand people crowded the bull ring, and 80,000 who were unable to enter, stood outside to listen to the shouts and bellowings. The contests lasted two and one-half hours. Mazzantinito, who hitherto had been merely a novillero, acquitted himself with such skill that he was proclaimed a matador by his admirers, who carried him on their shoulders in the arena amid a shower of cigars, fans, and other tokens of approval.

Crucified.

On the cross, just as the Saviour died, a fanatical member of the Order of Penitentes is reported to have died Friday at Tortes, Las Animas county, Col. Several Trinidad people claim to have been among the eye-witnesses, but they agreed among themselves not to talk for publication. According to the report current at Trinidad, however, the victim was nailed to a cross of his own formation and died in agony that he did not seem to feel, wrought up as he was to a delirium of religious fervor. The story of the crucifixion is vouched for by Henry D. Robinson, of Trinidad, who saw a crowd of Mexicans, who had been eye-witnesses and were discussing the tragic scene. In the old days, so it is said, the carrying out of an actual crucifixion was not uncommon among the Penitentes, but it was supposed to have been abandoned long ago, although it is known that the practice of self-torture is still carried out among the members of the order during holy week.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Mrs Emma Sawyer

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.

Mrs. Pinkham gives free advice to women; address in confidence, Lynn, Mass.

Assault and Murder.

The body of Miss Miranda Bricker, aged fifty-five years, who had been criminally assaulted and strangled to death, was found yesterday morning in the rear of the Fairchild home, in Mount Vernon, Ohio, where she had been employed as housemaid. There were evidences of a terrible struggle on the part of the woman, who had been dragged 500 feet from the place where she was first attacked. Persons living in the neighborhood recall that they heard cries during the night, but paid no attention to them. Bloodhounds have been sent for to trail the murderer if possible.

Plans to Get Rich

are often frustrated by sudden breakdown, due to dyspepsia or constipation. Brace up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies and give you a new start. Cure headache and dizziness too. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 25c, guaranteed.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Tried and True Friend.

Announcement.

It is my pleasure to formally announce to my friends and acquaintances that I have succeeded Charles G. Lennon in the drug business at 616 King street.

That the store has been refurnished with handsome fixtures and such appliances as insure convenience, facility and satisfaction in service to all.

Taking a natural pride in the results of my long and satisfactory connections in the business I invite all to call on and after Tuesday, April 18, 1905, to inspect my fixtures and the carefully selected line of all goods pertinent to the PROGRESSIVE PHARMACY.

Prescriptions will be carefully compounded by registered pharmacists only, they using an absolute accurate system of double checking.

Prompt delivery to any part of the city will be maintained, this in connection with night call and day telephone service.

Hoping to share your patronage and to bid you welcome to my store and the courtesies thereof, I am, Respectfully yours,

CODFISH.—New Boneless and Shreaded Codfish just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 24, 1905.

IN the midst of a tempest such as never before seen in the pit, John W. Gates's tremendous corner in May wheat was in Chicago on Saturday, shattered and destroyed, the whole structure going to irrevocable smash to the accompaniment of a yelling, shrieking chorus of a frenzied and unbridled mob as was stated in the Gazette of that day. The wreck is unrivaled in the history of the grain trade. The downfall of the Leiter deal, the Harper deal or the Philips corn deal cannot be compared to it for far-reaching effect or for the sensational circumstances attending it. In five hours May wheat went down by leaps and bounds until it had scored a decline of 11½ cents. the bottom figure being 98½. The inevitable closing rally brought it back to $1, and there it closed, the net decline being 10 cents. This was a drop of 15 cents for the week, and of 23 cents in less than six weeks. The panic began even before the opening of the market. Almost frenzied in anxiety, the traders, before the opening bell, were huddled in groups, like terrified animals about to stampede. The sound of the big bell was the signal for a mighty roar of voices, a din never equaled even in the stormy sessions that marked the wrecking of the famous Leiter and Harper deals. Clothing was torn, hats smashed and bodies bruised in the frantic efforts of the traders to sell the grain Shorts had apparently completely covered, and longs, little and large, hurled their grain at the hands that were closed against it. Nobody seemed to want May wheat above a dollar. Fortunes were made and engulfed in a second; rich men became paupers and penniless "pikers" rose to affluence and power. It is evident from the course of the market that the syndicate of speculators which had been manipulating prices has abandoned the effort to "corner" the market. Thus another attempt to control the supply of a necessary of life has come grief, as did many notable previous essays in the same direction. No one will waste any sympathy upon the projectors of the scheme, and the legitimate business of the country will be greatly benefited by the readjustment of values to a more normal basis.

DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES were rendered very uneasy a week or ten days ago by the action of the German Emperor, as it was feared that his obduracy in the Moroccan affairs, together with his movements regarding the Russo-Japanese conflict, would plunge Europe into serious trouble. The scare is by no means over, and King William is being watched as a chronic disturber of the peace of the world. He yesterday appeared in a new role. The German imperial yacht Hohenzollern which was at Messina, Italy, yesterday was profusely decorated with flowers and plants in celebration of Easter. Dr. Goens, German court chaplain, came from Berlin expressly to perform service in the chapel of the yacht in the presence of Emperor William, the imperial family and their suites and the staffs of the German ships at present in the harbor. At the conclusion of the service the Emperor delivered a sermon, expounding a text from the Bible. His text should have been "Blessed are the peacemakers."

REV. E. D. FRANCIS, pastor of the First Congregational Church, at Ludlow, Mass., has resigned his position to enter business in Springfield. This is the second retirement from the ranks of clergymen in that town within a year because the commercial field offered more satisfactory financial returns than the ministry. The ex-clergymen are now getting higher salaries. The first clergyman to resign was Rev. Thomas D. McLean, pastor of the Union Church, who resigned because he considered that his first duty was to his family. Rev. Mr. McLean has since been the representative of a New York real estate firm in Springfield and vicinity. He received a salary of $1,000 a year from his church. Rev. E. D. Francis, in tendering his resignation, stated his motives frankly. "I have though best to avail myself of a business offer, which came to me unsought and unexpectedly," he stated from the pulpit. He said he found the care of a congregation no easy task.

DELIGHTFUL weather, splendid floral decorations, triumphant and thrilling music appropriate to the day, and large congregations all combined yesterday to make the Easter festival commemorative of the fundamental event of Christianity a most impressive and stirring celebration. Lenten gloom is dispelled, and everywhere throughout the civilized world joyous humanity awoke to celebrate the gladsome Eastertide and pay homage to the newly risen King. Forgotten now the 40 days of prayer and fasting; only the glad significance of the Easter fills church and home.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 24.

This is "Egg-rolling Day" at the White House. Half the youngsters in Washington are having the time of their lives on the pretty lawns of the President's door-yard, and the extra force of watchmen and blue-coats are just about as busy as their small charges in safeguarding them from the dangers of the little lake and at the same time protecting the flowers from destruction at the hands and feet of the enthusiastic egg-rollers. Easter Monday at the White House has become one of the most firmly fixed holidays at the Capital. The children bring their colored eggs by the basket full to the grounds and there have huge fun spinning them over the level grass plots or sending them rolling down the little hills. The streets leading to the White House were lined with popcorn and peanut men, fakirs with balloons, paper windmills, and mechanical toys, long before nine o'clock, the hour set for the start of the festivities. No "grown-ups" were admitted unless they were accompanied by children, and although this rule was made public several days in advance, a large number of gentlemen and ladies who came to see the fun without infantile escorts were turned away. Some of the disappointed sightseers beat the rule by "borrowing" youngsters from ladies or gentlemen who came with a number in their train. The grounds were in possession of the children until one o'clock when all were invited to adjourn to the great White Lot or Elipse south of the White House. Here the Marine Band gave a concert which lasted most of the afternoon. Mrs. Roosevelt and her children with a small company of invited friends viewed the egg-rolling from the south porch of the White House and enjoyed the pretty scene to the utmost. Their appearance on the porch was greetedby a great cheer from the children on the grounds.

Solicitor General Hoyt in the Supreme Court of the United States today moved for the immediate issuance of a mandate in the case of Benson and Beavers, the former indicted for connection with alleged land frauds on the Pacific coast, the other for his connection with the postal frauds, and both ordered removed from the New York jurisdiction to the jurisdiction of the Court of the District of Columbia. Opposition was made in the Benson case and a stay of mandate was demanded on the ground that motion would be made for a rehearing. Chief Justice Fuller announced that the decision in the motion would be given next Monday. Mandate were ordered issued in the case of Beavers.

Secretary Shaw this morning received a letter enclosing a $10 note from a conscience smitten man at South Bend, Ind. "Years ago," wrote the anonymous contributor, "I defrauded the U S. government out of a small amount of money and now make good to the best of my ability. God only knows what I have suffered. Truly the way of the transgressor is hard. Enclosed is $10."

SUICIDES.

Leaving church in the midst of glad Easter services, Miss Mattie L. Hopkins, a pupil nurse in the Columbia Hospital, Washington, returned yesterday morning to the house where she was spending her annual vacation in Beltsville, Md., and committed suicide by cutting her throat.

Unable to bear the intense pain caused by asthma, of which he had suffered for the past 13 years, John Henry Nagle, aged 80, a well-known resident of East Baltimore, went from his home, shortly after midnight Saturday and committed suicide at the corner of Gough and Eden streets by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor.

Grief over his wife's death led William Wachauss to journey all the way from his native Bohemia in order to kill himself upon the grave of his dead spouse in Oak Hill Cemetery, just outside Baltimore. Wachauss was running a saloon there when his wife died, two years ago. Much affected by her death he sold out and went back to Goerkau, Bohemia. Last Thursday he landed in New York, and took a train for Baltimore Saturday. He left the train near the cemetery, went at once to his wife's grave and there shot himself through the head.

Edmund P. Capron, of St. Louis, committed suicide some time Saturday night at a hotel in Washington by swallowing cyanide of potassium. He had registered under the name of "T. Johnston" and used the name of "O. F. Hatch" when he pawned his watch Friday. Lying on a table in the suicide's room was an unsigned note addressed to "Nellie," which read: "Nellie, you are free. I so loved you that I have given my life a sacrifice for you, that you may have the happiness that you have longed for so many times. I regret that I inflicted my life on yours." Capron was for many years on the editorial staff of the St. Louis Star. He was a Frenchman of the old school.

Charles Hollenbeck, aged forty-eight, a glove cutter, committed suicide at Johnstown, N. Y. Saturday by drinking carbolic acid. He was standing in a drugstore talking with a number of others about the death of Mrs. Sadie McCartin, the New York woman who killed herself by drinking carbolic acid there Friday night. Hollenbeck was employed by the Johnstown branch of the Wertheimer Company, for which the woman had worked in New York. Suddenly Hollenbeck turned to the drug clerk and said: "Let's see some of that carbolic acid." A bottle of it was handed to him. Before any one could interfere Hollenbeck took a drink of the fluid and died in terrible agony in a few minutes.

Nan Patterson.

New York, April 24.—The State's case against Nan Patterson, on trial for slaying Caesar Young, was presented today by Assistant District Attorney Rand. For the third time within six months the young actress sat in court and heard the story of her life told to a jury and of the events leading up to the death of Young. Recorder Goff's court was crowded to the doors long before the actress was called to the bar. Miss Patterson was brought into court shortly after nine o'clock where she held a conversation with her father and counsel. The prosecutor, in opening, impressed the jury with the responsibility of its labors, and of the duty required in the performance of its work. Mr. Rand said that he realized that the jurors had read much of the thousand columns of this case, but that all must be forgotten.

Harold Coe, a photographer, was the first witness called. He identified a series of photographs he had taken of the street and environs of the shooting. A recess was then taken.

News of the Day.

Forty-four countries are to be represented at the International Railway Congress, which meets in Washington May 3.

Capt. O'Shea, whose divorced wife became Mrs. Charles Stewart Parnell, died at Brighton, England, Saturday night.

The republicans of the First congressional district of Indiana, Saturday nominated Judge Foster to succeed James A. Hemenway, elected to the United States Senate.

As the result of intense grief over the death of her husband, which occurred last Wednesday, Mrs. Anna Maria Strauss, widow of Christian Strauss, died suddenly yesterday morning of heart disease at her home in East Baltimore.

Several million square feet of valuable mahogany, quartered oak and birch lumber valued at $500,000, were Saturday night destroyed in a fire that completely gutted the drying kilns of the Sikes Company, furniture manufactures, at Philadelphia.

Mobbed by thousands of baseball rooters pelted with brickbats and bottles, the New York baseball club with "Muggsy" McGraw at their head, sought safety in flight Saturday afternoon at the conclusion of the game with the Philadelphia Club, on the latter's grounds.

One man was killed and two women badly hurt when a big sight-seeing automobile, crowded with passengers, crashed into a high billboard fence at Eighth avenue and Fifty-seventh street, New-York, yesterday. The streets were thronged with Easter promenaders at the time of the accident.

In a panic caused by a runaway during a circus parade at Columbus, Ohio, Saturday, Miss Nellie Bennett was so badly hurt that she may die; Raymond Bennett, her ten-year-old nephew, was painfully but not seriously hurt, and P. R. Shrum's leg was broken. Many others were slightly injured.

After following the trail of bloodhounds all night, Sheriff Shellenbarger arrested George Copeland, aged 18, a negro, at his home near Mount Vernon, O., this morning, on a charge of being connected with the murder of Miss Miranda Bricker, whose body was found at the Fairchild residence Sunday morning. A lynching was threatened.

For the first time in the history of St. Patrick's Cathedral, in New York, the Easter musical programme yesterday was rendered without the aid of women's voices. Mr. John Finnegan, of Washington, who is well known in Alexandria, sang at the service. Mr. Finnegan has been engaged as a regular member of ten choir at a salary of $1,000 a year.

William A. Weaver, forty-six years old, who is believed by the police to be suffering from some mental derangement, attempted to end his life by drinking poison, and turning on the gas in the toilet room of the Ontario apartment house in Washington Saturday night. He was found by the janitor of the building in an unconscious condition. He was revived at the Garfield Hospital, and later taken to the First precinct poliee station.

Twenty-five persons were injured in a wreck Saturday night on the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad at Greenleaf street and Fourth avenue, Wilmette, a suburb, fifteen miles from Chicago. Several university professors and a number of students of Northwestern University, returning from the baseball game between Northwestern University and the University of Chicago, at Ravina Park, were among the injured. The wreck occurred through the overturning of a car.

MR. MARTIN IN RICHMOND.

Senator Martin made his first speech Saturday night in Richmond as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate. He was greeted by an audience which filled the spacious Academy of Music, and was received with roars of welcome when he rose to speak, and was liberally applauded all through his address. There were many ladies in the audience, and nearly all the boxes and loges were filled. Egbert G. Leigh, president of the chamber of commerce, introduced Senator Martin, and on the stage were a hundred or more leading business and professional men of Richmond. In his introductory remarks Mr. Leigh said that he had been an opponent of Martin, but had been forced by the latter's official record to become his supporter. In closing, he expressed the conviction that a vote for Senator Martin was a vote for the good of Virginia.

Senator Martin's speech was a reiteration in large part of statements made by him in speeches elsewhere since the campaign opened. He said it was distasteful in the extreme for him to laud himself, but since his opponent had made the statement that he never accomplished anything, he (Martin) was obliged to specify what he had done or admit the Governor's charges. He then recapitulated his achievements in the Senate for the good of Virginia.

Of his speech the Times-Dispatch says: "It was a frank statement of facts, for the necessity of enumerating which he apologized to his audience, attributing it to the fact that his record and service as a senator of Virginia had been assailed and his achievements minimized by detractors and especially by his opponent for the office, for which he was a candidate for re-election. In the course of his review of his stewardship and despite the necessary references to criticisms of him and his service, the senator did not call the Governor's name, and only twice did he identify him as "the Governor" in his references. Generally he spoke of him as "my distinguished opponent," or "my distinguished contestant," but at times he referred with fine satire to the Governor's criticisms and detractions. He did not fail to impress the fact that he had been characterized as "a department runner," and pleaded guilty to the charge that he had endeavored to serve all his constituents without reference to politics or color as a senator of Virginia should do. Referring to the criticism that he had originated nothing, the senator frequently reminded his audience that he was not and did not claim to be "an inventive genius," but had endeavored to utilize whatever had been invented for the advancement of the interests of the State of Virginia and its people. Not a word of criticism of the Governor officially or personally was said, save such as was involved in the exposition and defense of his own record which had been assailed.

DEATH OF JOS. JEFFERSON.

Joseph Jefferson, the eminent actor, died at his home, The Reefs, in Palm Beach, Florida, at 6:15 o'clock yesterday evening. The end came after many hours of unconsciousness and after a heroic struggle of days, which had exhausted his vitality. At his bedside were his wife, his sons, Charles B and Frank Jefferson; his nurse, Mabel Bingham; Dr. R. B. Potter, and his faithful old servant, Carl Kettler.

The outcome was not a surprise to the patient's family. Ever since his last sinking spell, which came after a rally on Thursday morning and which was followed by an apparent improvement until Friday, the family has been waiting for the last moment. Mr. Jefferson's condition Saturday night grew steadily worse, and the family, who had retired, were summoned from their beds and Dr. Potter was also called. The patient's condition continued to grow worse all through yesterday and the brief bulletins from the bedside contained no words of encouragement.

The sickness of Mr. Jefferson, which ended in his demise, was contracted, it is believed, while on a recent visit to his son, Charles B. Jefferson, at Hobe Sound, a few miles above Palm Beach, where he went to meet his friend, former President Cleveland. It is believed that from a slight indiscretion in his eating there he suffered an attack of indigestion. Since his return to Palm Beach he grew steadily worse, with slight rallies until the end.

The body of Mr. Jefferson will be taken to Buzzards Bay on a special train, accompanied by all the members of his family who are at Palm Beach. It will reach New York Wednesday morning, and the family hope to arrive at Buzzards Bay the evening of that day.

The deceased was born in Philadelphia February 20, 1829. He moved to Baltimore when 16 years old and lived on Hillen street, near Jones's falls. He appeared in the company of the elder Booth when only seven years old. Jeffer managed Peale's Museum in New York as well as theatres in Macon, Savannah, Wilmington and Charleston. He was stage manager at the Baltimore Museum for Henry C. Jarrett in 1853, and managed John T. Ford's Theatre at Richmond in 1864. The deceased created the role of Rip Van Winkle in its present form in 1859. He went to California and Australia in 1860. He included in his repertoie Bob Acres in 1888 while playing with Florence.

The body of Joseph Jefferson will be taken from Palm Beach, Fla., to Boston, where it will remain in a receiving vault until the members of the family who are scattered over the country and abroad, can come together. The remains will then be taken to Buzzards Bay, and buried in Bay View Cemetery, Sandwich.

THE GOVERNOR DENOUNCED.

Governor Montague was denounced as an anarchist and a dangerous demagogue at a mass-meeting held in Portsmouth Saturday. The Governor recently delivered a speech in Berkley for the straightout element, which speech was rather violent toward the fusion element in the county, and the members of the county committee, of which Mayor Owens is chairman, having declared against fusion at their meeting held about a year ago, resented the Governor's statements to the extent that the meeting Saturday adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, the newspaper, reports of Governor Montague's speech delivered on the night of April 18 in the town of Berkley, quote him as having advised his audience that they had greater cause for riot than the people of Danville had a few years ago, thus inciting them to bloodshed that be might win their applause and support; and,

"Whereas, Some days have elapsed since such publication and no denial has been made by Mr. Montague; now, therefore, be it.

"Resolved, That we denounce such utterances as those of a dangerous demagogue, for, when the Governor of Virginia, who is the head of the militia, upon whom the authorities must call in case of riot, can advise such lawlessness he would, of course, do nothing to suppress it and thus, if these really be his sentiments, stamps himself as an anarchist and utterly unworthy of support of Virginians. There can be no place in the hearts of Virginians for such sentiments as those expressed by Governor Montague."

D. A. R.

The Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington Saturday adopted resolutions denouncing Mormonism and urging the Senate not to seat Reed Smoot.

Mrs. McLean was elected chairman of the Continental Hall fund.

The State regents were announced and the vexed question of accepting Children of the Revolution as members of the D. A. R. went over to the new Congress.

Mrs. Eleanor W. Howard, of this city, was re-elected State Regent for Virginia.

The Congress voted unanimously not to mortgage Continental Hall, but to go ahead with the work of collecting funds for its completion. The treasurer-general, Mrs. M. E. S. Davis, of the District of Columbia, in a statement regarding the funds in hand for the hall, showed that about $38,000 had been contributed at this session of the Congress, and $15,000 turned over from the current fund to Continental Hall fund, making in all $53,000 with which to continue the work of construction. It also was shown that up to the present time $95,000 had been spent on the building, and that there was no outstanding indebtedness.

Fatal Accident to Engineer.

Thurman Beckley, 45 years of age, an engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was instantly killed about noon yesterday by being caught under the locomotive, which overturned after jumping the track at the curve at Maryland avenue and Sixth street southwest, Washington. Beckley was operating the engine, which was prawing seven empty coaches and was running fast when the curve was reached. Without a moment's warning the engine jumped the track, and before Beckley could escape he was pinned under the engine. Fireman S. Dillingham leaped from the cab as the engine left the track and escaped injury. It is not known what caused the accident, but an investigation is being made by the railway authorities, and a further investigation will be made by Coroner Nevitt. The dead engineer leaves a widow and three children.

Explosion of Gas.

Newark, N. J., April 24.—By an explosion of gas in his home early this morning, for which it is believed he was responsible, Charles Koch, a machinist, was killed and his wife Sarah so badly burned that it is feared she will die in St. James hospital. It is believed that Koch went into a small hall room, tore the bracket from a gas jet, and then lay down to die. His wife, who awoke about four o'clock, missed him from the bed and as he had been ill went in search of him. She carried a light and when she opened a door leading from the parlor to the hall room there was a terrific explosion, which blew out the front windows, tore the plaster from the walls and smashed windows on the opposite side of the street. Mrs. Koch was felled by the explosion, and her night clothes fired by the flames, but she managed to put out the flames, assisted by the neighbors who responded. They found Koch's body blocking the door to the small room. It was terribly burned. The Koch children, four in number, were shaken up by the explosion but none of them was injured.

Bank President Removed.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 24.—Frank G. Bigelow president of the First National Bank, of Milwaukee, the biggest financial institution in the west, and ex-president of the National Banker's Association, was removed this morning by his fellow directors in the bank as president and director. The latter took immediate steps to protect depositors and at once signed a personal guarantee of one milllion six hundred thousands dollars.

This, with the surplus and undivided profits which the bank carries over and above the capital of $1,120,000 makes all safe, it is said. Bigelow is said to have told the directors this morning speculation was the cause of his alleged defalcation. Rumors are current that the alleged shortage may reach one and one-half million dollars.

Wedding.

New York, April 24.—The wedding of former Lieutenant Governor Timothy Woodruff and Miss Isabelle Morrison took place at four o'clock this afternoon, in the apartments of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Estevan Morrison, in The Dorilton, No. 171 West 74th street. The ceremony was simple and the guests were confined to the immediate relatives and most intimate friends. Miss Eugenie Watson, fiance of Mr. Woodruff's son, was the maid of honor. The best man was John Eastman Woodruff, son of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Right Rev. Bishop Gabriel, of the diocese of Northern New York, assisted by Rev. Father Taylor, of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, of which the bride is a member. The apartments were decorated with white and purple lilacs together with palms and other spring flowers. The bride was married under a bower of white and purple lilacs.

Wheat.

Chicago, April 24.—The grand rush to get out from under the May wheat deal, engineered by the Gates party, continued its nerve-racking course on the Board of Trade, this morning, when the option opened at 98 a two cent break from Saturday's close, and under the stimulating influences of the shouters for help, steadily bore away for the bottom selling at 93½ at 10:30, o'clock, a spread of 5½ cents for the hour. In New York, the break was 5¼ cents, St. Louis, and Duluth, 2 cents; and Minneapolis, 3 cents.

Conditions were of the most panicky sort, and it is figured that the Gates campaign has cost its originators a very pretty sum. The deferred months, on the other hand, were held fairly well in hand this morning, indicating that the Armour strength is behind it. May opened from 96 to 98 and sold to 97½ to 97; July at 86½ to 86 to 86¼. They closed Saturday at 100 and 86 7-8, respectively. May corn opened 47⅞ to 46⅞ to 46 7-8; July 48 to 47.

Accident to Freight Trains.

Idianapolis, Ind., April 24.—The third section of in-coming Big Four freight train No. 90 was wrecked at North Indianapolis this morning near the scene of the disastrous Perdue University special wreck two years ago. Two men were killed, and at least one injured. The train was running about 30 miles an hour. As it was passing from the main tracks to the Belt Line, the rails spread, and four cars were wrecked. The engine toppled against the water tank. Major McClain, the engineer, and head brakeman W. C. Duncan, were buried under the tender and are dekd. C. Delph, the fireman is injured. All are from Indianapolis.

Jealous Man's Crime.

Norway, Me., April 24.—Jealousy was responsible for one of the most horrible crimes in the history of the State at East Waterford, yesterday, when Edward Hilton, 60 years of age shot and instantly killed George Youngs, aged 45, stabbed his wife several times, about the head, leaving her for dead, on the floor, and then went out in the back yard of his house and put a charge of buckshot into his own chest, killing himself. Mrs. Hilton's face is horrible cut, but it is thought she will recover. It is said that Hilton and his wife had not lived happily together, and that Hilton was jealous of the attentions paid by his wife to Youngs.

Accident at Blast Furnace.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 24.—An accident at the blast furnaces at Duquesne, this morning, resulted in the serious injury of four men, one of whom may die. The men were engaged putting in a tuyer or tapping hole in one of the furnaces and had almost completed the work. The task is not an easy one, but everything went all right until near the end when the tuyer blew out and with it belched forth a volume of roaring flame that caught the men at their work.

Medal for J. P. Morgan.

Rome, April 24.—The Ministry of Public Instruction has struck a gold medal to be presented to J. Pierpont Morgan in recognition of his act in returning the Accolicope, which was stolen, and which the New York millionaire purchased. The medal bears an inscription relating Mr. Morgan's generosity.

Full of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from this terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Strange Conduct of Alfonso.

Madrid, April 24.—Spanish court officials are worried over the strange conduct of King Alfonso. While they do not believe his intellect as impaired, they think his character is showing signs of such weakness as to indicate a constitutional infirmity. Alfonso will be nineteen years old next month, but almost every day he gives evidence of such irresponsibility as is seldom seen in a school boy. The following typical instances of his behavior reach your correspondent from a reliable source: Recently Alfonso in passing through an antiroom in the Madrid palace met Admiral Chacon, a venerable sailor, who was formerly aide de camp to the king. Alfonso approached the admiral and said to him: "What office are you now filling?"

The Admiral replied that he was attached to one of the bureaus of the Navy Department, whereupon Alfonso answered in a loud voice: "Is that so? Well, my dear Chacon, I suppose you idle your time away there just as you did at court." The king then raised his hand and slapped the face of the old sailor, after which he walked off laughing boisterously. Chacon, in relating the incident later said: "When I felt his majesty's hand hit my face it was all I could do to restrain myself from disgraceing myself and my uniform." Several other recent incidents are mentioned in which the King acted autocratic and ill-mannered. His speeding through the streets of Madrid in an automobile is causing much apprehension.

Conditions in Russia.

St. Petersburg, April 24.—The agitation on the part of the revolutionaries continues in many parts of the country. Reports of demonstrations arrive at frequent intervals, and they show that the feeling against the government is not confined to any particular locality. The latest report comes from Dvinsk, where 200 children ranging from six to eleven years marched through the streets singing revolutionary songs. They chanted the words, "Don't touch us; we are children of workingmen." The police put an end to the demonstration, and forced the children to disperse. The strike situation in this city is not improved. The printing offices are again involved in a dispute with their employes, and as a result several of the newspapers failed to make their appearance today.

The Fleets.

Saigon, April 24.—When last seen Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet was fifteen miles off the Annam coast. The fleet was steaming toward the north.

London, April 24.—There is no confirmation here of the reported fighting between the Russian and Japanese fleets ot the Annam coast, and the absence of details leads many of the experts to doubt whether any battle has occurred. At the most they believe it was engagement between a part of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet and a few Japanese scouts.

Accident on Battleship Maine.

Pensacola, Fla., April 24.—It is reported that a bad accident occurred on board the battleship Maine this morning. She is coming inside the bay. Her flags are at half mast, indicating that the accident is serious.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 24.—The most influential factor in the stock market today was the readjustment of the speculative position of the Northern Securities group, resulting from the distribution to individual holders of the Northern Securities assets, which are now held in bulk by the Northern Securities Company. The most important development since the closing on Thursday were declines of 14¾ cents in May wheat in Chicago and 10 points in Northern Securities on the Broad street curb this morning. The decline in prices last week in itself caused heavy liquidation by weak holders in the West. According to reports from the various crowds that were most active today, the market was full of selling orders and these orders could only be executed at concessions in prices. There was no support except in a few stocks like Louisville & Nashville and West Erie. Gates & Co. were heavy sellers around the room and Field, who is on the floor for the first time in many months, was an aggressive seller of Union Pacific, but bought that and other stocks at declines. The market was active and excited, but there was no evidence of demoralization or panic. The sales for the first hour were 592,500 shares. After 11 o'clock many supporting orders came into the market and some generous rallies ensued.

Easter Parades.

For the first time in its history the Easter parade at Atlantic City assumed yesterday the prominence of a national event. In this great living panorama, which moved in never-ending procession along the Boardwalk, every section of the country from ocean to ocean was represented. The local report of the crowd was over a hundred thousand, or nearly double that of last year, and the estimate was verified by the railroad statistics, which showed a gain of 60 per cent. over the previous season. Display of sprieg styles was beautiful and there were some striking costumes. One of the most noticeable features of the Easter Sunday parade in New York yesterday was the large number of dainty feet within tan-colored low shoes, and stockings of the same shade. These shoes are little more than sandals, being cut away almost to the toe. The stockings most worn were almost peek-a-boo in thinness, often of silk or lisle thread. Later, doubtless, the network variety will appear. Seldom or never have there been such crowds in 5th. ave for Easter as yesterday. Both sides of the avenue were packed almost to suffocation, and certainly to discomfort from noon until 2 o'clock. Hundreds of the women in the throng wore gowns of blue, not the blue of old ocean but rather the color known in the department stores as baby blue.

Letter to Samuel H. Lunt,

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: Thomas J. Bannon, druggist, Westerley, R I, says:

Westerly painters expect a gallon of paint to cover 19 sets of blinds; Devoe covers 25; there is no such thing as rubbing this out.

(The usual reckoning is for a gallon to cover 16. We suspect the Westerly people don't wear their paint till it gets very shabby.)

Devoe covers more; of course, we know that; we know why too; it's all paint and full-measure.

Yours truly

Virginia News.

Secretary Shaw has directed the collector of customs at Newport News to reinstate Brown and Mitchell, the colored republicans who had been dropped from the rolls.

Dawson McCormick, of Berryville, died Friday night in New York of pneumonia, aged 44 years. He was a son of the late Major Edward McCormick, of Berryville, and until recently was a resident of Claremont, the country home of the McCormicks.

Considerable losses from theft and robbery have compelled the officers of the Norfolk navy yard to begin the practice of examining the packages and the lunch baskets of the employes as they leave the navy yard. This order, following the recent search of the pawnshops of Norfolk, in which many thousands of dollars worth of clothing and equipments were found and seized, indicates that the officers are concerned at the extensive robberies which have been perpetrated.

Capt. Charles Gee and a posse captured the alleged moonshine distillery of W. B. Elliott, operated for years on an island in Staunton river in Campbell county. Elliott was captured without firing a shot and without injury to a man. Elliott and his distillery have long been known to the authorities, and this raid has been contemplated for many months. When Elliott was captured he carried the rifle with which he is said to have shot a revenue officer last November, and was surrounded by his pack of vicious dogs. The officers "got the drop on him" and he had to surrender. He was taken to Lynchburg and turned over to Commissioner O'Brien, where he gave bond for his appearance in the sum of $10,000.

Died Under the Knife.

While still under the influence of anesthetics, Rev. Christian Kuyk, pastor of Epiphany Episcopal Church, Barton Heights, died in Richmond Saturday at Memoriai Hospital. His death was due to the shock of a surgical operation performed by Drs. J. Shelton Horsley and D. A Kuyk, the latter a brother of the patient. The operation was undertaken to rid Mr. Kuyk of severe neuralgia, and involved the removal of a nerve near the base of the brain. The minister, who was fifty years of age, was strong, active, and healthy. He went to the hospital unassisted, and although the operation contemplated was known to be a serious one, his recovery was confidently expected. Mr. Kuyk was a native of Holland. He came to Virginia for years ago, and had filled charges in Richmond and at Blackstone. He was twice married. His second wife and eight children survive.

Gen Charles Smart, ranking assistant surgeon general of the United States army, of Washington, died at St. Augustine, Fla., yesterday.

It was stated at the residence of United States Senator Alger, in Detroit, Mich., who was stricken last night with an attack of indigestion, that the patient was much better this morning.

Robberies.

At an early hour yesterday morning Messrs. John Force and John Poss, who live at the residence of Mr. William H. Cox, 918 King street, surprised two men, supposed to have been negroes, in the act of robbing Peter J. Pulman's second-hand store at 921 King street. The men had broken the glass of the show window and were removing sundry articles when they saw Force and Poss approaching, whereupon they took to their heels. They were chased several squares and the fugitives finally entered the alley adjoining Mayor Paff's residence, on north Patrick street. Here Mr. Force drew a revolver and shot at one of the men who fell to the ground. Leaving Mr. Poss to guard the supposed dead man Mr. Force hurried to police headquarters and informed Lieut. Smith of what had occurred. In the meantime Mr. Poss had left his post and strolled to the street to watch for the arrival of the officers, and taking advantage of the opportunity, the man who had fallen scaled Mayor Paff's fence and disappeared. Officer Allen yesterday arrested a colored bootblack named James Henry Wells on suspicion of having been the man who pretended he had been shot. A rifle was missing from Mr. Pulman's window. Wells was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, but the trial of the case was postponed, as several material witnesses were absent. Lieut. Smith and Officer Henderson recovered the rifle which had been taken from Mr. Pulman's store.

Thomas Trenary, who conducts a grocery at 1460 Duke street, reported yesterday to Officer Ferguson that his store was broken into early Sunday morning and a revolver, twenty-five bags of smoking tobacco, five pounds of chewing tobacco, and a number of pies stolen. The thief effected an entrance by breaking the slats of a window in the rear of the building.

The Electric Railway.

The roadbed for the new double track of the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway is nearly completed from the siding at Spring Park, just west of Alexandria, to the siding near Braddock Heights a distance of about a mile, and within the next week or ten days, it is thought, the laying of the new track, which will connect these sidings, will be started. A considerable portion of the grading has also been done from Braddock Heights to Lloyd's and workmen are now employed in moving the poles that support the trolley wires, in order to make room for the new track. The ties and rails which will be used in the double tracking have been distributed along the line of the road from Four-mile run to Alexandria. When the double tracking is finished between Alexandria and Four-mile-run, the laying of the additional track from Arlington Junction to the south end of the new highway bridge over the Potomac will begin. The four new motor cars, which were ordered from Philadelphia over two months ago, are now completed and are expected to arrive some time during the week.

Two new motor cars for the electric railway arrived today.

The Internal Revenue Office.

Mr. M. B. Harlow, president of the Business Men's League, a few days ago wrote a letter to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in which he urged that official to continue the internal revenue office of this district in Alexandria. Mr. Harlow in his letter reiterated what has recently been urged against changing the location of the office, and reproduced reasons which should be apparent to all why the office should remain where it is. Among the reasons set forth is the fact that Alexandria is convenient for the majority of people who have business with the internal revenue office. Apart from this, the government has recently expended about $70,000 in enlarging the Alexandria public building chiefly to accommodate the revenue officials. The Commissioner replied to Mr. Harlow's letter. He says no application for the removal of the office has been made, and when that shall have been done the people of Alexandria will be notified and given an opportunity to urge their objections to its removal.

Preparing for the Ferry.

The plans for the new pier and steamer slips to be constructed at the old ferry wharf in Washington have been approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and returned to the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company. Manager John Callahan has placed an order for the timber and material to be used in the new pier. The tearing down of the old building and the pulling up of the piles forming the old slip and wharf was to have been started this morning and the work will be pushed in order to have the new slips ready for service as soon as possible. By the time the slips are completed, it is stated, the company will have procured a double-end ferry steamer for service while the new double-end boats are building. The officers of the company will visit Alexandria this week, and plans will then be formulated for the new slip here. It is stated that berths for two steamers will be provided at the Alexandria end of the route.

Accident on Electric Road.

The train on the electric railway which left this city at 11:20 a. m., yesterday ran into an open switch at the Four-mile run power house and collided with a motor car which was standing on the siding. The latter was knocked from the track and thrown on its side. The northbound motor was but slightly damaged, but the motorman Enoch Davis was thrown out, and when picked up was unconscious. It was at first thought that his neck had been broken, but he was soon revived, and upon his arrival in this city walked to his home. His back was sprained and he received several painful bruises. The passengers on the northbound car were thrown into a state of panic by the accident, but no one was injured beyond a few slight cuts from broken glass. Motor car No. 17 which dashed into the car on the side track was in the head-on collision at Spring Park several weeks ago, when one man was killed and a number of people injured.

Easter.

Yesterday was an ideal Easter Sunday—the weather being clear and the atmosphere crisp. The streets were thronged with people all day and until a late hour at night. Many ladies appeared in their new Easter gowns which in most instances were handsome and becoming and attracted much attention. Many men also appeared in their spring suits, showing the new spring styles. The "parade" on Washington street after the church services was not so large as on some previous occasions, still many were to be seen on the streets. The churches were crowded and especially fine music and eloquent sermons helped to bring home the lesson of the day to the worshipers. The musical programmes, published in the Gazette last week, were well rendered, the several choirs showing careful training and good results. In many of the churches the floral displays were beautiful.

During the day many people visited Washington, while equally as many came from the latter city to Alexandria.

St. Mary's Church.

At both services, yesterday morning, St. Mary's Church was crowded. At 7 a. m. masses were celebrated when many thronged to the communion rail. At 10:30 solemn high mass was sung by Rev. H. J. Cutler, celebrant; Rev. F. Walsh, C. S. P., deacon; Rev. J. J. Bowden, subdeacon. Mr. G. Harlow, jr., was master of ceremonies. Thirty boys in cassock and surplice filled the sanctuary. Rev F. Walsh preached a strong sermon on the "Resurrection as the ground of our hope." The main altar and the whole sanctuary was beautifully decorated with lights, flowers and palms under the direction of the sanctuary ladies, president, Miss Mary Carne. The music under the direction of Mrs. J. Brill was of the highest order and delightful to hear.

Immanuel Lutheran Church.

The services in Immanuel Lutheran Church yesterday were of an interesting and impressive nature. At the communion service 54 persons partook of the emblems. The hymns rendered by the Sunday school children were appropriate and this feature of the services was especially fine. The singing was under the direction of Mr. Louis Folmar, jr. The Easter sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. J. May, and he had the undivided attention of his hearers. The church was beautifully decorated.

Vestrymen Elected.

At the annual election for vestrymen of Christ Church held today the following were chosen: W. A. Smoot, L. M. Blackford, D. N. Rust, Hubert Snowden, G. L. Boothe, C. C. Leadbeater, H. F. Robertson, N. P. T. Burke, G. S. French, T. W. Robinson, E. S. Leadbeater and C. H. Yohe.

The following were elected vestrymen for St. Paul's Church: J. Wallace Hooff, Maj. Jno. W. Green, Capt. Robert F. Knox, Jno. R. Zimmerman, Edward L. Daingerfield. Capt. Herbert Bryant, Col. L. W. Reid, W. H. Lambert, Julian T. Burke, J. Clinton Milburn, Judge J. K. M. Norton and Dr. George T. Klipstein.

Easter Music.

The music at the different churches yesterday surpassed that of many former occasions. Especially was this so in St. Paul's Church, where a string orchestra and a large chorus of singers rendered an exceptionally fine programme of music. The regular chorus of Christ and St. Mary's churches rendered some very beautiful music. The choir of Grace Church, composed of 20 voices, appeared in vestments for the first time. Some of the other church choirs had special musical programmes.

Easter Monday.

The fair and mild weather of today was a pleasant adjunct to Easter Monday, and the occasion being a semi-holiday, there has been considerable animation on the streets. Many strangers have visited the city during the day. The electric trains transported large numbers to and from Mount Vernon, a large percentage of whom stooped here on the return trips and visited different points of interest. Many of the younger generation hied themselves to the environs, where they romped on green swards, picnicked and rolled eggs.

Sunday-School Celebrations.

Sunday-School celebrations were held in several of the churches yesterday. They were well attended and the exercises were of a very interesting character.

The exercises at Grace Church were held at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The church was beautifully decorated and the singing of the carols, etc., by the children was animating. An address was made by the rector, Rev. Mr. Carpenter. The Easter offering by the children for missions amounted to $52.20. The offering by the church for the organ fund amounted to $818.

At St. Paul's Church the Easter celebration by the children, held at 5 o'clock in the evening, was well attended and was very attractive. The feature of the celebration was a beautiful floral light house planned and constructed by the superintendent, Mr. Urban S. Lambert, which was greatly admired by all present. The address was delivered by Mr. J. M. B. Gill, of the Seminary. The Easter offering amounted to $150, which does not include the Sunday-school collections for the year.

The celebration at Christ Church was held at 5 o'clock in the evening and was well attended. The floral design for the festival was an open sepulchre beautifully constructed. An address was delivered by Rev. W. J. Morton, the rector, and the offering for the year amounted to $280, including the Easter offering of $91.

The Easter services by the Sunday school of Trinity M. E. Church were held last night in the auditorium in place of the preaching service. An Easter programme entitled "Easter Morning" was most beautifully rendered by the scholars of the Sunday school. The address of the evening was made by Mrs. Huston, wife of Judge F. M. Huston, of Iowa, who delivered a most interesting address to the Sunday school upon the missionary interests of the Methodist Church. The offering by the school, which was for the Missionary Society, amounted to $24, while the programme was in charge of the officers of the Missionary Society.

Confirmation Services.

Bishop Gibson, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, paid an official visit to this city yesterday and preached and confirmed classes at Christ Church in the morning and at Grace Church at night. In Christ Church ten persons were confirmed and at Grace Church fifteen. On both occasions the bishop preached interesting and instructive sermons to large congregations. At Grace Church many people were unable to secure entrance and were turned away. Four services were held in that church during the day.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The spring term of the Circuit Court opened today when the docket was called.

Most of the session today was occupied in trying the case of Mary Magdalene Johnson, colored, indicted for the murder of James Evans, also colored, which was still in progress when this report closed.

Approaching Wedding.

Miss Elizabeth Lloyd Lee, of this city, and Mr. John Garr Henry, of Morristown, N. J., will be married at o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 26. The marriage will be a full-dress affair, there being six bridesmaids and ushers and the best man. The ceremony will be performed in Christ Church. The bride will be given away by Dr. G. Wythe Cook, of Washington, and will wear a handsome gown of white satin, made princesse, with trimmings of rare point lace. The bridesmaids are Miss Edna L. Forbes, of Richmond; Miss Hazel Bolton, of the University of Virginia; Miss Sallie Daingerfield, of Alexandria; Miss Constance Lee, of Philadelphia; Miss Elsie Henry, of Morristown, N. J., sister of the groom, and Miss Emma Hume, of Alexandria county. They will wear gowns of white chiffon, trimmed with lace, and white hats with pink roses. Their bouquets will be La France roses. The best man will be Mr. Pennybacker, of Wilmington, Del., and the ushers will be Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, of Alexandria; Mr. Arthur Ripley, and Mr. Fuller Potter, of New York, and Mr. Lewis Franklin, of Morristown, N. J. A large number of out-of-town guests are expected to be present.

Personal.

Mr. J. R. Caton, who has been confined to his home on N. Columbus street by a severe attack of grip, has recovered sufficiently to be out. Mr. Caton expects to leave the city soon in the hope of regaining his health. For the present he will be compelled to abandon the personal prosecution of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, and has canceled his political engagements in order to fully recuperate his health.

Mr. Thomas S. Evans, eldest son of Mr. Paul R. Evans, and who now resides in New York, is on a visit to his relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smoot have gone to Atlantic City to spend a week.

Mrs. Robt. Barrett and children, of Mexico, and Miss Alice Steele, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett on Duke street.

Miss Mary Gibson of Richmond is visiting Mrs. S. A. Wallis on Seminary Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. B. Hannum, of Chester, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabelle Maclay, to Mr. George McGill Carter, formerly of this city

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Washington Lockle, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

William Cliff, arrested by Officer Henderson for drunken and disorderly conduct and for assaulting Officer Mayhugh, was fined $10.

Louisa Bird and Kate Porter, both colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2 each.

Robert Ashby, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with cutting George Lomax, colored, was dismissed, and Lomax held to answer a charge of disorderly conduct.

Henry Wells, arrested by Officer Allen on suspicion of housebreaking, had his case postponed.

The Rhodes Scholarship.

Beverly D. Tucker, jr., of Norfolk, has been awarded the Rhodes scholarship for the State of Virginia and will sail next September for Oxford, England, to begin his studies at the famous English seat of learning. Mr. Tucker is well known here. He is the son of the Rev. Dr. Beverly D. Tucker. Mr. Tucker received the announcement of his appointment at the University of Virginia, where he has been for the last few days. He is at present pursuing a theological course at the Theological Seminary, near this city, and will graduate from that institution next June. He is also a graduate of the university, having received the degree of A. B. in June, 1902.

The Highway Bridge.

The work of building the stone piers for the new highway bridge across the Potomac is progressing rapidly, but so far this spring no iron work has been done. It is understood it will be again started within the next week. The false work on which the big traveling crane moves and the iron work rests as it is being put together is in position from the end of the completed iron work on the Washington side of the river to the pier recently completed, and there the iron work will be resumed. A pier, the fourth from the Virginia side, has been completed and a pile driver is now employed in driving the pile work on which the bridge structure will be erected.

Colored Man Cut.

On Saturday evening a difficulty occurred between two young colored men named Robert Ashby and George Lomax, during which the latter was cut on the neck by Ashby. The trouble occurred in the northwestern part of the city. Ashby was arrested and the case was examined in the Police Court this morning, when the evidence showed that Lomax was the aggressor and there was reason to believe that he was about to use a pistol on Ashby. It was also shown that he had previously been guilty of disorderly conduct. Ashby was dismissed and Lomax held.

The Fishery.

The receipts of shad have increased. They were selling in market this morning at 30a35 cents for buck and at 60 cents for roe. These prices, however, will not be maintained long. The receipts of herring at Fishtown are fair, but there is by no means a glut. Fine white perch, judging from the quotations, will eventually become as scarce as sea serpents. Some specimens sold at $1.25 a bunch yesterday.

Work of Vandals.

The glass globes over the gas jets at the entrance to Lee Camp Hall on Prince street, near Columbus, were broken Saturday night or early yesterday morning by some vandals. Last night some mischievous persons upset the urns at the circle at Prince and Washington streets.

Auction Sale Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer for sale at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the premises a parcel of ground in Rosslyn, Alexandria county. The sale will be made under a deed of trust, E. D. F. Brady and Geo. M. Myers are the trustees.

Fra Diavolo.

The parts of Lord and Lady Allcash will be sung by Mr. William Clabaugh and Miss Edna Scott Smith, respectively. Mr. Clabaugh, it will be remembered, took the part of Count Arnheim in the Bohemian Girl, while Miss Smith has not appeared for some time in Alexandria, her last appearance being in the Mikado, when she sang the part of Katisha. In Fra Diavolo they have quite a lot of duet work in addition to their usual number of solos. Mr. Clabaugh has a rich baritone voice, while Miss Smith's voice is a contralto of wide register.

River Notes.

The tugboat Defiance arrived here yesterday with the four-masted schooner E. Starr Jones in tow. The schooner is from Ponta Gorda and is loaded with phosphate rock for the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company.

The schooner Grace Benedict is loading railroad ties at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf for a northern port.

The British bark William Black, which has completed the discharge of her cargo at this city, will sail in a day or two for New York, where she will obtain a cargo for a foreign port.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The board of supervisors of Alexandria county has granted the Washington Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company permission to construct a siding at the head of King street.

Governor Montague will visit Alexandria Thursday, May 4 and address the voters in the interest of his candidacy for United States Senator. The meeting at which he will speak will be under the auspices of the Montague Club.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Beavers Kearney took place today from her late home, Wilton, Fairfax county. The services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Stump, assisted by Rev. S. A. Wallis. The interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery.

The National Council, Daughters of America, will visit Mary Washington Council, in this city, tomorrow evening. Mount Vernon Council is invited. The member of Mount Vernon will meet at Mrs. John Clapdore's residence, corner of Prince and Royal streets, at 8 o'clock and proceed to the hall in a body.

The baseball team from the Rock Hill (Md.) College Saturday evening defeated the Episcopal High School nine on the latter's grounds, near this city, by a score of 17 to 9. The game was witnessed by a number of Alexandrians.

The alarm of fire about 11:50 o'clock this morning was caused by the partial burning of an old frame house opposite the Belle Pre glass works. The department responded and the flames were soon extinguished with but little damage.

The annual meetings of the Massachusetts Breweries Company; the Pneumatic Tobacco Stemmer Company, and the Locke Coal Company were held in this city today for the election of directors.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight for the purpose of electing a policeman to fill the vacancy which will occur May 1.

Mr. William Lyons, of this city, an employee at the Washington navy yard, had one of his thumbs cut off by having it caught in the machinery a day or two ago.

A number of colored persons were baptized in the cove opposite Battery Rodgers yesterday afternoon; A large crowd witnessed the ceremony.

A birthday party for the benefit of St Mary's Church will be given at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum hall tomorrow night.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets strengthened and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Doctor's Big Bill.

Hearing of Dr. L. C. H. E. Ziegler's suit for $126,000 for alleged medical services by him to the late Mrs. Harriet C. McVicker, wife of the widely known theatrical manager, was begun in Chicago yesterday in the Probate Court. Testimony was presented in the form of a deposition from Rev. F. W. Black, an intimate friend of Dr. Ziegler, who knew Mrs. McVicker for a number of years, and frequently called on her. Details of an alleged contract which Mrs. McVicker is said to have made with Dr. Ziegler in payment of services ordered were described in the deposition.

"I visited Mrs. McVicker every other Thursday evenings for many years," the deposition read. "She often spoke about Dr. Ziegler, and said he was the only physician who had ever helped her. She told me at least 50 times that she had agreed to pay the little doctor, as she called him, $100,000 for his services. I saw her often in 1904 before she went to California, and she said she intended to take Dr. Ziegler with her. She said she felt as if she could not live without him."

The witness admitted that he had known Dr. Ziegler before he had met Mrs. McVicker, and that he had always been on friendly terms with the physician.

Earthquakes in England

Two earthquake shocks were felt early yesterday morning in Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, and Lincolnshire. The residents of many towns were awakened by their houses shaking, furniture shifting and bells ringing. The disturbances were accompanied by a rumbling sound. There was great alarm, but no damage was done, so far as known. As an illustration of the sharpness of the shocks the officials of Hornthorpe's colliery, in Derbyshire, believed there had been an explosion. They descended the pit, where a few men were employed in reparing the works. They found the men safe, but greatly alarmed. A large part of the population of Leeds, Sheffield and York were awakened at 1:40. Their houses shook for four seconds. A police inspector who was writing in his office at Retford was thrown from his stool. The vibration seems to have traveled from east to west. It coincided with a complete change in the weather from dry and cold to warm and rainy.

No Politicians Need Apply.

Politicians need look for no political favors from the Postmaster-General. This will be the mandate sent forth within the next two or three days.

Postmaster-General Cortelyou is now working on a set of rules that will put an end to the aspirations of many politicians. It is in effect that no member of any political organization can be appointed to a place in the Postoffice Department. Applicants for the office of postmaster—whether presidential or fourth-class—will be required to state under oath that they are not members or officers of any political organization and do not hold any office under State political societies. Holding such an office will be good ground for the rejection of any application for such offices.

This order will be published by the Postmaster-General within the next few days, it is said.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

N. Y, Tri-Weekly Tribune

For those who want to get the New York news and news of things the world over and don't want to spend the money or time in buying and reading a meropolitan paper seven days in the week The Tri-Weekly Tribune fills the bill. It is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week. Price, $1.50 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to The New York Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; all three for $2.50.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

N. Y. Tribune Almanac.

If you never examined The Tribune Almanac just invest a quarter for once, and see how well pleased you'll be. The 1905 one will be on sale January 1, and may be had from your newsdealer, through your local paper or direct from The Tribune office, New York.
